

North American Valuation Summit on Financial Reporting

Dear Colleague:

In cooperation with the leading valuation associations in North America, the Centre for Advanced Property Economics is pleased to invite you to our forthcoming valuation summit, which will take place in Toronto, Ontario, June 24, 2004. Focused on Valuation for Financial Reporting, the Summit will take an in-depth look at the move toward fair value reporting under the new International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

With the implementation of these new standards only a year away, this is your chance to gain valuable insight into what this transition means for you, your clients, and your business.

We would also encourage you take the opportunity to learn more about current valuation issues by attending the Appraisal Institute and Appraisal Institute of Canada's joint Summer Conference in the days immediately following the Summit. More information on this event is available at www.appraisalinstitute.org or www.aicanada.ca. We look forward to hosting you.

Sincerely,

Richard Raymond Alasko
Chair, Centre for Advanced Property Economics

Who should attend:

Real estate appraisers, business valuers, accountants, auditors, audit committee members, as well as corporate finance and management staff.

The Summit promises to be an exciting opportunity to:

- Learn about the events and pressures that have brought us to this point
- Explore the concept of fair value and its growing role in financial reporting
- Gain perspective on the impact of fair value reporting on a company's bottom line
- Find out what regulators, preparers, and users of financial reports think about the move toward fair value
- Anticipate the growing need for valuation services under new financial reporting standards
- Understand the professional synergies between accountants, auditors, and valuation professionals under accounting and valuation standards

Keynote Speaker

Mary M. Sjoquist

Special Counsel

Public Company Accounting Oversight Board

Mary M. Sjoquist is currently Special Counsel to the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB). In this capacity, Ms. Sjoquist works directly with Board Members and senior staff of the PCAOB in formulating the rules required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, new and revised auditing standards and other policies affecting registered public accounting firms.

Prior to joining the PCAOB, Ms. Sjoquist was a partner at Patton Boggs LLP, a large national law firm, where she chaired the firm's Business Practice group. Ms. Sjoquist has been a securities practitioner for more than 20 years and has focused her practice on securities offerings, mergers and acquisitions, representation of public companies reporting to the Securities and Exchange Commission, crisis management and corporate governance. In addition to her private practice experience, Ms. Sjoquist also spent four years with the SEC's Division of Corporation Finance.

Ms. Sjoquist has been a frequent speaker and has appeared on many panels particularly in the area of corporate governance, crisis management and securities regulation. She has a JD degree from the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law and a BA degree from the University of Waterloo, Canada. She is a member of the District of Columbia Bar Association and is active in the American Bar Association's Federal Regulation of Securities Committee and the Securities Subcommittee of the Small Business Committee.

Toronto Valuation Accord

Signed in Toronto, Ontario, in October 2003, the Toronto Valuation Accord is the basis for cooperative efforts between the following North American valuation associations:

- American Society of Appraisers
- American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers
- Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS—USA and RICS—Canada)
- The Appraisal Foundation
- Appraisal Institute
- Appraisal Institute of Canada
- Centre for Advanced Property Economics

The coalition is united in its work to promote use of market value in financial reporting as in the best interest of the public, investors, government, and business decision makers. As part of the Accord and its related memorandum of understanding, these organizations have teamed up to work with legislative and regulatory bodies and standards setting groups to aid in expediting the simplification and convergence of financial reporting standards. They are also committed to helping valuation professionals and the users and preparers of financial statements prepare for the changes ahead.

This Summit is part of this overall effort.
